25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me." - Mk 9:35b-37a

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Reentries can often times be difficult, disconcerting and even dangerous. Whether it's reentry into the earth's atmosphere from outer space, reentry into a family or society from which one was alienated, or reentry into a building, such as a place of worship, the action of coming back to some reality from which we were separated, poses numerous challenges. It demands giving up a familiar way of doing things from the past. It entails recognizing differences that are new and that were perhaps unforeseen. It calls for flexibility and a willingness to adjust to that which is unfamiliar and even inconvenient. But most of all it is a concrete invitation to acknowledge that change is a part of human existence so that whatever does not change will die.

For over three months this past summer our parish was engaged in a symphony of change. We conducted our most sacred rites in a gymnasium – a place we typically do not associate with liturgical prayer. Our parishioners adjusted to this temporary relocation with great patience and appreciation. We were reminded that there are countless people throughout the world who do not have regular places for prayer – a blessing we often times take for granted. Then, last weekend, we witnessed the reentry of our members into their church building – an historical experience that can only be described as elegant, peaceful and overflowing with gratitude. I have no doubt that the memory of this weekend will linger in all our hearts for years to come.

I wish to thank all the members of our faith community who made this reentry possible and who consistently sustain the life of St. Joan of Arc Parish by the gracious giving of their time, talent and treasure. I also want to thank the following individuals and groups of people: those who labored behind the scenes, meticulously organized and attentive to every conceivable detail; those who exerted great physical strength in order to reverently move objects that were not only heavy, but also holy and delicate; those who continued to serve as liturgical ministers during this time of transition and exile; those who prayed for the successful outcome of this "Enhancement Project," and most especially, Deacon Jack Hayes who contributed his professional expertise as a civil engineer to act as the general contractor for this entire project. Deacon Jack is the person who identified the architect and the various vendors who were hired to remove the carpet, install the terrazzo flooring, repair and refinish the pews and woodwork, paint the walls and ceilings and oversee the final and thorough cleaning of the space. He negotiated with the owners of these different companies to design a timeline so that this variety of labor could happen in a way that was organized and fiscally responsible. He came to the church each morning (before going to his regular full time job as president of a construction company) to inspect and advise the work that was happening; I even witnessed him sweeping the floor and emptying trash when no one else was around. How can one person be so multi-talented? Only God can answer that question. How can one person be so willing to extend himself in such a sacrificial manner? A person who loves his parish.

As we continue the ongoing process of reentry into our newly enhanced church let us do so with a profound gratitude for all the gifts that have come forth from one another. And let us be most grateful to God who began this good work and who now calls us to live as good stewards of these gifts so that those who follow us in the years to come will be inspired to continue this noble legacy.

Blessings,
Fr. Gabriel, OSB

Throwback—New Parish Center

In the spring of 1985, the Benedictine Sisters returned to live at Sacred Heart Monastery, and the convent was converted into parish administrative offices, however, Fr. Roman knew the existing building would no longer be adequate for the parish vision approaching a new century. He kicked off the huge building project with a major fund-raising drive to raise the $1.6 million, but unanticipated zoning and planning requirements forced engineers to rebuild the south parking lot. Then an underestimate of the construction of the teen room bumped up the total cost to $2.2 million

The new Parish Center has proved to be a valuable addition to our church campus. It was built with administrative offices, conference rooms for counseling, adult education rooms, a kitchenette, and a partial basement. The new building was dedicated June 13, 1999 to coincide with the celebration of St. Joan of Arc's 75th anniversary. Present at the altar were Bishop Imesch and Abbot Hugh, as well as some of our current and former pastors and associates. The blessing of the new Parish Center took place after Mass and was followed by a dinner dance at the Hilton, attended by almost 400 for an evening of reminiscing and friendship

Members of St. Joan of Arc Music Ministry were part of the group leading the music at the Diocese of Joliet 75th Anniversary Regional Mass at Montini Catholic High School on Saturday, September 14

Saint Joan of Arc—Grief Support Group

Saint Joan of Arc Grief Support Group will meet for a 7 week session on Thursdays from 5:30pm - 7:00pm on the following dates; 9/26, 10/3, 10/10, 10/24, 10/31, 11/7, 11/14. The meetings are in person, or you may attend zia Zoom. This support group is open to adults age 21 and older who have lost a loved one; spouse, parent, child or close friend. The support group recognizes and respects the uniqueness of the individual, their perception of loss, and expression of grief. Reactions to a loss can vary from disbelief, anger, depression, and feelings of isolation, guilt, and more. Each individual who experiences a loss needs to be able to express themselves and be heard for effective grieving to take place.

It is important to understand, this is not a counseling or therapy group. It can definitely be therapeutic but the focus is on providing a supportive environment in which to work through grief when, for many, there may be few places in which a grieving individual can get support and be themselves as they grieve, with no judgment.

Saint Joan of Arc Grief Support Group combines aspects of “Touchstone” and “Grief Share” and other Christian Grief Support Programs to provide a safe place to express thoughts, feelings, and to share. Participants will have the opportunity to share their story, identify or develop and utilize healthy personal coping skills, with dialogue around topics such as social and spiritual concerns, and begin the process of adapting to life without their loved one while transforming their relationship with them.

Saint Joan of Arc Grief Support Group is FREE of charge, for you, your family and friends. To join our session, please contact Pat Pusateri RN/ Parish Nurse-630-353-4526 or ppusateri@sjalisle.org.

Thank you to Mr Renn and Lisle Savings Bank! Our 2nd graders took a walk to visit the bank where they learned about money, counting bills & coins, banking, saving and so much more. What an amazing experience!

We really appreciate LSB's support of our school.

THE SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY CONFERENCE AT ST. JOAN OF ARC

MISSION STATEMENT: The SJA SVDP Society is a network of friends, inspired by gospel values, growing in holiness and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need.

IDENTITY STATEMENT: The SVDP Society as a Catholic lay organization leads women and men to join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to the needy and suffering. It operates in the tradition of its founder, Blessed Frederic Ozanam and patron, St. Vincent de Paul. Vincentians are drawn from every ethnic and cultural background, age group, and economic level.

INTERNATIONALLY: Vincentians are united in a society of charity by their spirit of poverty, humility, and sharing, which is nourished by prayer and reflection, mutually supportive gatherings, and adherence to a basic RULE. Organized locally, we embrace all works of charity and justice. The Society collaborates with other people of good will in relieving need and addressing its causes. There is no distinction in those we serve because in them Vincentians see the face of Christ.

A representative from the Saint Vincent DePaul Society at St Joan of Arc will be speaking at all Masses the weekend of September 29th.

Meet Matthew Krumdrick: New Beginnings at St. Joan of Arc

We are excited to reintroduce Matthew Krumdrick, our new Director of Adult Faith Formation and Christian Initiation. Matthew brings over 26 years of ministry experience, having served in various roles across the diocese, most recently as Youth Ministry Director and live streaming pioneer at St. Jude in New Lenox, IL. His heart for service and passion for growing faith communities have already made an impact on him in the short time he's been here at St. Joan of Arc.

Matthew is eager to lead new initiatives, including dynamic programs like Alpha, designed to deepen our faith and create lasting connections within our parish. He also looks forward to organizing meaningful opportunities like pilgrimages, mission trips, and engaging adult faith formation events.

Matthew has been married for just over 20 years to his wife, Jenny, and they have three children—Joe, Maria, and Ella—and host their international student, Olivia. We look forward to the many ways Matthew will serve, inspire, and enhance our community in faith and fellowship.

Matthew will be speaking at all Masses the weekend of September 22nd

Jesus himself provided an example of service for us to follow. We are blessed to have an Adoration Chapel which requires cleaning. The Martha Ministry provides that service. To do this, those in the ministry rotate through the weeks of the year. Cleanings occur weekly on Saturday mornings and take about 1 hour. There are also 2 deep cleanings during the year which are done collectively.

If you feel called to join this ministry, please contact Alex Gervacio at agervacio@sjalisle.org or call the parish office.
